PROHIBITION COUNTY TICKET AND COUNTY COMMITTEE

Unofficial Convention Designated Eva Perrine Hare For Treasurer, Traver District Attorney, Herring, Assembly, and Fuller, Coroner.

The Prohibitionists of Ulster county met in unofficial convention at the court house Tuesday afternoon at 1 o'clock.

Former County Chairman James B. Palmer of Plattekill was elected chairman, and Dr. P. N. Chase of Kingston was elected secretary.

Prayer was offered by the Rev. George W. Thompson of Olive.

Chase Reviews Progress.

The following paper, read by Dr. Chase, was unanimously adopted:

Since our meeting last December, our cause has made great advancement. January 16th the thirty-sixth state ratified the Prohibition constitutional amendment, making the nation bone dry January 16, 1920, and the momentum was so great that before the finish the legislators of forty-five states had ratified the amendment.

War-time prohibition is evidently to be a success, judging from the action on its enforcement recently passed by the house of representatives by a vote of 287 to 100, enough and to spare, even if the president should veto it, and the senate is considered dryer than the house.

The consistent, persistent agitation of the question by the Prohibition party for fifty years, coupled with the great work done by the W. C. T. U., has done more to bring present results than any other agency.

Doubtless the Prohibition party will not come into power, any more than the abolition party did, but the principle will win the same as it did in regard to slavery.

There never was a time when Prohibition votes were as valuable as they are now.

A great Prohibition vote this fall will compel one or both of the old parties to make it an issue in 1920, or a new party will arise and carry it to victory.

We should, as far as possible, vote at the primary September 2, and enroll for next year, while at election, November 4, we should vote, not only, but get a large number of our friends to vote our ticket.

We must not relax our efforts for a single moment, even if the end seems so near. Over confidence has lost many a battle.

What the future may bring, no one can safely predict, but for the present, there can be no question—the Prohibition party was never more needed than it is now.

Along the years, most of us have been content to simply vote our ticket. Had we been as zealous to secure converts to our party as other parties have to theirs, no one can tell how large our enrollment would have been now.

Bishop in Bad.

We were seriously injured last fall by the effort, which, in a most underhand way, finally succeeded, in putting Charles S. Whitman at the head of our ticket. Our then state chairman, Olin S. Bishop, was responsible for that. It may not be generally known that at the meeting of the state committee December last, not one vote was cast for his re-election. William H. Burr, a lawyer of Rochester, was elected, and seems to be getting hold of the work in fine shape.

Praises to Walton and Brink.

We wish to speak in highest terms of our state senator, Hon. Charles W. Walton, and our member of assembly, Hon. Joel Brink, in helping to secure the ratification of the national constitutional amendment, and in no less praise, although they did not succeed in this, in voting against bills to destroy the sanctity of our Sabbath.

We hope that we may always be represented in the legislature by as able and God-fearing men.

Of late years no lawyer in our county has been willing to identify himself with our party, and we have endorsed those of other parties for county judges and for district attorney.

Judge James Jenkins was not nominated by us, but left an enviable record along all moral lines, which are being fully maintained by Judge Joseph M. Fowler, who was supported by us last year.

To Do Better For Traver.

Frederick G. Traver, as district Attorney, has handled well many cases of violation of the excise law. Attorney has handled well many with great difficulty.

Had it not been for the confusion last fall in connection with the nomination of governor, we would have polled two thousand votes in the county. We should far surpass that number this year. We should be willing to spend time and money to advance our cause.

Patriot Phalanx, our able national prohibition paper, should have a large circulation. It will be also something of a state organ for once each month much more space will be and must be our own state news.

We have everything to encourage us but we must make the last of the conflict the hottest of all, until John Barleycorn is dead and buried so deep there can be no resurrection.

And as our nation has been the leader in worldwide Democracy, it must be the leader in worldwide Prohibition.

The County Ticket.

Designation for county officers follow:

Eva Perrine Hare of Wallkill was named for county treasurer. There being no further nomination, the secretary was instructed to cast the ballot for Mrs. Hare, and she was unanimously nominated. She was introduced to the convention and in a few well chosen words thanked the convention for the honor conferred.

The name of F. G. Traver was named for district attorney. It was suggested that a ballot be taken, which resulted in 25 ballots for Mr. Traver and 5 blank.

SELL 76 MILLION POUNDS OF SUGAR

War Department Selling Surplus Food Rapidly at Small Loss—House Resolution Hard To Comply With.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

Washington, July 30.—The house resolution calling upon him to place on sale without delay the $120,000,000 food surplus held by the war department, was [illegible] Secretary Baker today. The secretary refused to indicate what the nature of his reply would be but the fact that the resolution was amended to provide that the surplus be cut up into shape for parcel post distribution was believed by officials of the department to prevent a serious problem. The cost of such an undertaking, and the time that would be consumed, would make it practically impossible to carry out the request of the resolution, it was contended.

In the meantime the department appeared to be getting rid of its surplus food rapidly. Bids for some 40,000,000 cans of vegetables, aggregating $2,000,000, or practically eighty per cent of their original cost to the government have been received and 249 awards already made. Also the department has announced that it will put 14,262,000 cans of corn, 18,160,000 cans of peas, 2,949,000 cans of string-beans and 7,900,000 cans of baked beans on the domestic market at once, in carload lots, "to be sold to anyone willing to pay a price acceptable to the war department." Also 76,000,000 pounds of sugar are to be disposed of through transfer to the sugar equalization board at Chicago.

CHICAGO POLICE HAVE MOBS UNDER BETTER CONTROL TODAY

One More Dead and Six Hurt This Morning—Negroes Adopt Sniping Tactics With Army Rifles and Barricades.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

Chicago, July 30.—One more dead and six injured were added to the toll of four days' race rioting early today.

Earl Henry, a negro, was shot and killed by a policeman after Henry had shot and wounded Policeman Walter Sullivan. Sullivan was seriously wounded and may die.

The police quickly broke up attempts at mob rioting today, when they dispersed a strong mob that gathered at State and 51st streets. Several persons were injured.

Snipers lying in ambush fired on a taxicab carrying six policemen and two of the officers were wounded.

Chicago, July 30.—Guerilla warfare between whites and negroes has today for the most part replaced the mob rioting that has held sway over large areas of the city since Sunday and which brought the city many times to the verge of martial law. It is still possible that troops may be called upon to take over the policing of the city, although the regular police department claims to be getting the situation closely in hand.

Establishment of zones with a stated number of police officers assigned to each zone has, the police declare, broken up the mobs of whites and blacks that caused Monday's and Tuesday's reign of terror.

Fighting between the whites and blacks has by no means been checked, however, and sporadic disturbances are still frequent in both the business and residential districts of the north and west side.

Casualties Exaggerated.

Careful checking up of casualties resulting from the three days of rioting has reduced somewhat earlier estimates of the dead and wounded. The official coroner's list today places the number of dead at twenty-six, including eleven white men and fifteen negroes.

The wounded, it is estimated, number more than 300.

A coroner's inquest over bodies of victims of the riot is to be held as soon as the necessary steps can be taken and will probably will get under way today. The grand jury which is now in session will undertake an exhaustive probe of the situation under direction of State's Attorney Macklay Hoyne.

Military and civil authorities have wavered many times, on the verge if calling out the 4,000 militiamen who are being held in armories, completely armed and ready for service. Adjutant General Dickson, Governor Lowden and Mayor Thompson have held frequent conferences and, although admitting that the situation is extremely bad, have thus far refrained from calling out the guardsmen. It is declared, however, that should rioting on the scale of that on Monday and Tuesday be renewed, the soldiers will be called out before night fall.

Blacks Attack White Girls.

Between two o'clock yesterday afternoon and this morning, but one man is known to have been killed. He is a young negro who was attacked in a west side neighborhood, several miles from the black belt, stabbed and shot sixteen times and his body saturated with gasoline and set afire.

Another incident that featured the rioting during the night was an attack upon Miss Josephine McDonald and Miss Mamie Bristol by a mob of negroes. When the girls fled from the mob shots were fired at them and both were wounded.

Patrolman Thomas Daley and Police Sergeant George Chatt were shot and painfully wounded during the night while attempting to quell riots.

Calls for the police came from widely scattered districts with almost unending frequency during the night. Mobs of negroes and whites swarmed through the streets and fighting flared up in hundreds of localities. Every available police reserve was kept on duty and was kept busy while, with the street car system paralyzed by the strike, vehicles of every description were pressed into service to transport policemen. Many arrests were made and police stations throughout the city are rapidly filling up with prisoners.

Guards are keeping close watch today upon the county jail, where negro prisoners became unmanageable yesterday and staged a serious uprising.

Guerilla Warfare Now.

Although there has been little further trouble in the business district, following outbreaks yesterday, the police are keeping close watch in the down town section and are taking every possible precaution to prevent mobs forming. Negroes, as far as possible, are being held in remain away from the business districts. Under the impression that negroes were employed in the place, several hundred whites attempted to force an entrance to the Sherman Hotel, but were prevented by police and special officers.

Instead of forming into mobs today, negroes in the "black belt" are hiding in homes and in alleys and maintaining a guerilla warfare, attacking of shooting at whites whenever they appear. On the west side, where a few negroes reside but where whites predominate, the colored population has appealed for protection, fearing attacks by the white men. Even on the aristocratic south side, where many negroes are employed as servants in the homes of the wealthy, crowds of white men have congregated and threatened the negroes.

Negroes Have Army Rifles.

Search of many houses, including those occupied by negroes and the homes of white men, has revealed barricades and quantities of ammunition. Negroes on the south side are reported to have obtained army rifles of the Springfield type and an investigation of how the blacks got them, is being made.

The riots have had their effect upon industrial life of the city and many industries employing negroes have been compelled to lose or curtail their operations, as the blacks have not appeared for work.

City playgrounds, where both white and black children have played, have been ordered closed. The stockyards, particularly have been affected as many negroes are employed there, and it is the stock yards that proved the scene of some of the most violent fighting.

CO-OPERATION IN FORESTRY

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

Wanakena, N. Y., July 30.—To what extent shall New York state co-operate in carrying out the proposal of Col. H. S. Graves, chief of the United States Forest Service for the development of private and public forests?

This was the problem which was opened Tuesday night at the first session of the annual convention of the New York section of the Society of American Foresters, when Dean Hugh P. Baker, of the New York State College of Forestry at Syracuse led the first discussion of the Graves forest policy with an outline of the problem as it affects New York state.

How to make the forests productive, both those of the state and of private owners, and how to apply the policy to this state was described by Dean Baker as an especially important question in these days of reconstruction.

"The leading lumber and forestry journals yesterday and today," Dean Baker said, "tell us of the cutting of the southern pine forests at the rate of 50,000 acres per day, of efforts being made by the lumber industry of the country to take care of increased production by seeking a foreign market, of forest fires in the northwest destroying valuable timberlands over extensive areas, and over against these things and much nearer home to us is the rapid increase in the cost of production and market price of practically every product of the forest. Just behind these conditions of today is the evidence of the value of forests in a national crisis. Can we doubt that the forests of France, of the United States and even of Spain were vital factors in the winning of the war by the associated governments."

In taking up the technical aspects of the problem, Dr. Baker declared that the first problem was to lay out a definite program, to get the facts and to properly present the facts to those interested.

"We shall go back as a profession and as individuals in the profession if we do not stand aggressively for the securing of the facts we need and their proper presentation to those concerned."

Dr. Baker then turned to the technical side of the problem with a discussion based on seven years of observation and study in the Adirondacks.

HOMESPUN YARN.

Cheap, nourishing, palatable is mush and milk—good any time, but especially so for Sunday night lunch.

Have you an iceless refrigerator in your home? The state college at Ithaca, N. Y., will tell you how to make one that costs but little.

Housekeeping and homemaking is as much a business as banking; system is as essential in the successful operation of one as of the other.

Lining the oven of the oil stove or range with asbestos not only conserves fuel and increases the efficiency of the oven, but helps keep the kitchen cool.

In planning or rearranging the kitchen remember that expending a little more thought and money may mean the drudgery of housework will be lessened for years to come.

The teachers of the state believe in training children in agriculture and home work. Otherwise would you have volunteered this summer to supervise without pay the work where paid leaders were not available?

Be on the safe side. When on your vacation take a little box of pyrethrum powder with you. Some of the powder dusted between the sheets of a bed which you fear may contain unwelcome bedfellows will protect you from their ravages.

DADDY'S EVENING FAIRY TALE

by Mary Graham Bonner

THE SERVAL.

"I am as wild as I can be," said the Wild Cat. "The whole cat family is a wild one. We have the right sort of a family.

Now there are people who brag about their family trees. I don't know what they really mean for how can a family of people have a family tree?"

"They may have an apple tree or a pear tree or a peach tree or a cherry tree, but they cannot have a tree known as a family tree."

"Oh," said the Wild Cat's neighbor, "they don't mean they have a tree made of the family. What they mean is that they all belong to grandmothers and grandfathers of great importance and who are very high-up people."

"I suppose they're called family trees because they're high up," said the Wild Cat, "though lots of trees aren't very high come to think of it."

"No," said the neighbor, "that has nothing to do with it. A family tree all depends on whether a creature has grandmothers and grandfathers and great grandmothers and great grandfathers. Don't you see?"

"But then everyone would have a family tree," said the Wild Cat, "and I dandn't think everyone had."

"My dear Wild Cat," said the neighbor, "there are grandmothers and grandmothers."

"I suppose so," agreed the Wild Cat.

"But I mean," said his neighbor, "that some grandmothers are high up and some aren't."

"Some are snobs and others aren't, eh?" asked the Wild Cat.

"Yes, that's about it," said his neighbor.

So that is what they mean by a family tree," said the Wild Cat.

"It's all very well to have one," said his neighbor, "but unless a creature amounts to something himself I don't see how he can think he is fine because simply his grandfather was."

Just then another neighbor of the Wild Cat's looked about him. "I wish I knew," he said. "To hear my name, in the real dignified name, my name which means nothing and yet which means everything one would never believe I was a cat, eh?" asked the Serval.

"What does your name mean exactly and positively?" asked the Wild Cat. "That sounds rather queer to me, to tell, it sounds quite impossible."

"Ah, but it is!" said the Serval.

"Then you explain it to me," said the Wild Cat.

"The name of Serval sounds very dignified," said the Serval.

"Well I suppose so if you want to think it does," said the Wild Cat.

"I do want to think so and I have thought so and I will think so," said the Serval.

"And it means nothing in one way because it doesn't tell any secrets. It doesn't tell folks that I'm everything."

"Well, well, well," said the Wild Cat, "that is bragging a little bit too much."

"Not at all," said the Serval. "I am from Africa. That is a long way from the zoo, and it's interesting to think that my home is so far off."

"Well it depends on what one thinks is interesting," said the Wild Cat.

"Of course," said the Serval, "and I think that that is interesting. And when one thinks of the Serval, one thinks of a beautiful little spotted cat a rare cat, a cat with thin and handsome long legs, a tiny head, a delicately shaped body and beautiful round spots."

"That's all very true," said the Wild Cat, "but of course if no one were to think of Serval, one wouldn't think of all those things."

"Ah," said the Serval, "very true but I feel there are enough sensible people in the world who do sometimes think of the rare Serval family of spotted cats!"

International.

Two Tommies went into a restaurant on the eastern front and said to the waiter: "We want Turkey and Greece."

"Sorry," the waiter replied, "but we can't Servia."

"Well, then, get the Bosphorus."

The boss came in and heard their order. Then he said, "I don't want to Russia, but you can't Rumania."

So the two Tommies went away Hungary.

Not a Question of Arithmetic.

Teacher—Now, Willie, if Johnny Stone (a classmate) should tell you that he killed three rabbits yesterday and five the day before, how many rabbits would he have killed in both days?

Willie—Oh, about one or two.

Teacher—One or two? Why, Willie, three and five make eight.

Willie—Yes'm; but I know Johnny's habits.

Too Young to Decide.

Gertrude (aged four) was asked by a visitor what nationality she was.

"I'm English some as my papa is," was her reply, "but my mamma is a Frenchmama."

"And what is your baby brother?" asked the visitor.

"Don't know," said Gertrude, "he ain't big enough to talk yet."

Hears Only the Voice.

"A lack of understandin' kin be mighty comfortin'," said Uncle Eben. "De worse you talk to a mule de more he feels complimented by de attention he's receivin'."

The Ford case report quotes the court as saying "I hardly feel competent to stop all speechmaking, and would not unless I had an axe or something." This particular judge is by no means the first wearied mortal who upon occasion has longed for "an axe—or something!"

The London Mail quotes Prof Gilbert Murray as describing tobacco as "a slight narcotic poison" and as asserting that "the use of bad language is due to the slight nervous convulsion momentarily destroying self-control and releasing subconscious interests which are normally suppressed." However that may be, present exhibitions are mild indeed compared with the "nervous convulsions" and "bad language" that will be noticeable when tobacco is exiled

AN UNPRECEDENTED SITUATION

The man in the street would say that "the Anti-Saloon League pulls the strings and congress dances like mad." Seeking to give expression to the same general idea, the Baltimore Sun says "This country has never witnessed such an extraordinary spectacle as was staged in the House of Representatives in connection with the Volstead bill designed to enforce prohibition * * * The war is over and attention is now focussed upon Washington, the battle is concentrated in one spot, with both sides lined up presumably in their greatest strength, with everybody in the limelight and everybody put on record, and none of the supposed advantage which was thought to accrue to the prohibitionists (during the war) from attacking the enemy in detail and free from too much general publicity; and a large proportion of the soldier voters home again Yet in spite of these apparently changed conditions, in spite of the vigorous protests from labor unions and from unorganized bodies of citizens in nearly every part of the country, and in spite of the fierce criticisms of not a few influential newspapers, the prohibitionists, if we are to judge from what is happening in congress, are tenfold stronger than ever."

Concerning this "amazing and unparalleled expression of national eccentricity or national development," the Sun says further. "What is demonstrated so far as congress and this particular subject are concerned, is that the prohibitionists are our national law-givers They are the absolute dictators from whom congress receives its orders Never before has there been such complete, unquestioning, slavish subserviency to a will outside of congress The people have not been so meekly and promptly obeyed no matter how loudly they have thundered at elections Congressmen have often forgotten or sidestepped the people's orders but they do not dare to disregard the orders of the prohibition chiefs of staff A few of them protest at the drastic program of enforcement but most of these do so with trembling knees and blanched faces They are afraid even to adjourn without the consent of the Third House watching them from the galleries Prohibition has established a reign of terror and terrorism, which has reduced the large majority of congressmen to a condition of mental serfdom They no longer have the courage to call their souls their own."

Putting aside for the moment the question of the merits or demerits of national prohibition and merely referring to the conditions as they appear, the Sun continues "If we thought congress had been reformed and converted to prohibition, the country might welcome it as a blessing to that body, if not to every one else. But the strength of prohibitionism in congress is not due to the political or moral virtue of congressmen, but to their lack of it The prohibitionists have got the majority of them thoroughly cowed They are for prohibition and all its laws, not so much because they believe in it as because they are afraid of the prohibition antis and know and fear, continued that the prohibitionists are strong enough to lick them and put them out of political business if they revolt, and that anti-prohibition sentiment may safely be ignored."

"Whether we agree or disagree with this view of an extraordinary situation, it must be patent to the dullest comprehension that the Anti-Saloon League is one of the most powerful organizations the world has ever seen.

LITTLE LAUGHS.

"I wonder how the prohibitionists came to bar champagne?" "Why shouldn't they bar it?" "As a drink, isn't it extra dry?"—Baltimore American.

"Here is Bumps, who has just been discharged from the army, boasting he got a D S C What's that—a decoration?" "Sometimes it is, but in his case it was not a decoration, but a job—a district sanitary cart."—Baltimore American.

"I suppose you expect the historians to do you justice." "My friend," said Senator Sorghum, "if I get sufficiently prominent to figure permanently in print, I'm not going to take my chances with any historian, I'm going to have a press agent"—Washington Star.

BIGGEST STEAK PARTY.

Mendelssohn Quartet Enlivened Roxmor Dinner.

(Contributed)

On Saturday evening, July 26 the Stone Room at Roxmor Inn was witness to another beefsteak dinner—for the most part just like the innumerable steak feasts previously held in this room—but differing widely in certain other respects In the first place, the dinner was strictly a Roxmor affair—only members of Roxmor colony or guests at Roxmor Inn were invited. Next, this was the largest crowd of steak-eaters that ever attended a feast in the Stone Room, over fifty being present

The 'eats' were about the same as usual—soup toasted crackers and cheese, the delicious steak on the "dope" bread, the coffee and coffee-cake. There is no need of going into detail on this point; in might cause too much jealousy among those who were not lucky enough to attend.

Robert Boyd was made toastmaster He called forth speeches, fraught with humor and good natured "hits" at other members of the party, from Dr. Harry Eberhard, Benjamin G Fernald Richard H Tetherington and others Clarke Dailey rendered vocal selections, which the gathering greatly appreciated—especially the war song, "Sammy, give 'em Hell"

The crowning glory of the evening was the presence of a quartet from the Mendelssohn Club of Kingston, Arthur Rifenbary, Raymond Everett Charles Finch, Harry Clearwater and Harry P Dodge, accompanist They delighted everyone with their great variety of songs, brought in at appropriate times at the toastmaster's call

The historic event was closed with a vote of thanks to Edward B Miller, the cook, and to the Mendelssohn Club for the greatest steak party which Roxmor Inn has yet witnessed.

Oldest Living Thing.

The oldest living thing in the world is thought to be the famous cypress in the churchyard of the village of Santa Maria del Tule, a few miles from Mexico city Experts have estimated its age as between five and six thousand years. It is said to have been a sprightly two hundred years old when Cheops built the great pyramid —Exchange.

Powerful Nitroglycerin.

The greater part of the world's output of glycerin is used for nitroglycerin prepared in the action of a mixture of nitric and sulphuric acids on glycerin, which forms the chief ingredient of many modern high explosives and smokeless powders used for military, mining and agricultural purposes.

TEN EYCK NEW COUNTY SEALER; VOTE MONEY FOR BETTER ROADS

Supervisors Appropriate For Rosendale-Kingston Highway, Naponoch-Montela Highway, and Authorize County Highways To Sleightsburgh Bridge and On Sawkill Road ---$3,000 For T. B. Hospital Maintenance.

S. Francis Ten Eyck of Hurley was elected county sealer of weights and measures to fill the vacancy caused by the death of George Dumond at a special meeting of the board of supervisors in the court house Tuesday night. Mr. Ten Eyck, with a rating of 90 per cent. stood first on the eligible list presented by the civil service commission. He was elected unanimously on a resolution presented by Supervisor Saxe. The salary was fixed at $720 a year. The two other names furnished by the commission were Edwin I. Fish of Allaben, with a rating of 85.20 and Samuel M. Boyce of Ellenville, 84.20. Mr. Ten Eyck will assume his duties August 1.

On resolution of Supervisor Hasbrouck of Rosendale the original maps and plans of the Rosendale village-Kingston highway, adopted June 28, 1916, were approved, and a sum of $15,225 was appropriated to pay the county's share in the additional cost of the construction of the road.

A communication from the state highway commission was read prior to the adoption of the resolution stating that the previous contract for the Rosendale village-Kingston highway was a war contract and terminated under the provisions of Chapter 459 of the laws of 1919. Owing to the increase of the cost of labor and materials, it was explained that an additional appropriation of $44,400 was needed, of which sum the county's share was 35 per cent or $15,225.

A similar communication was received concerning the Napanoch-Montela highway. The additional cost of this work with the termination of the war contract was placed at $2,900 of which the county's share is $1,015. On resolution of Supervisor William Doyle this sum was appropriated and previous resolutions concerning the plans and maps of the highway were approved.

Supervisor John D. Fratsher of Saugerties introduced a resolution to the effect that an additional $3,000 be appropriated for the maintenance of the Ulster County Tuberculosis Hospital for the year ending December 31, 1919. Mr. Fratsher explained that the expenses of the hospital amounted to between $1,000 and $1,100 a month. He said that there was at the present time $2,000 in the fund plus a small amount received from paid patients. Speaking of paid patients, the supervisor remarked, that a new rule had been adopted to not accept paid patients owing to the length of the waiting list. He said that a general survey of the county was to be made and that when a report was presented, the board of supervisors would then realize the conditions in the county. The hospital is now filled to capacity having 22 patients. There are seven or eight on the waiting list. Mr. Fratcher explained that the present funds were insufficient owing to the abnormal costs of material, food supply, etc. The resolution was adopted on motion of Supervisor Doyle.

A resolution requesting the supervisors to construct a highway beginning at a point on County Highway No. 310, at or near Sleightsburgh, running thence westerly intersecting the alignment of the proposed Rondout bridge approach and continuing westerly to the settlement of Connelly, a distance of three-quarters of a mile, all in the town of Esopus, as a county highway, was introduced by Supervisor Holt Winfield, of the town of Esopus, and adopted.

Supervisors Brink, Charlton and Sagendorf presented a resolution to the effect that the supervisors construct a highway beginning at a point on State Highway No. 5,173 at Ficken's Corners and running thence northerly and northwesterly through the settlement of Sawkill and Zena, coming out on to County Highway No. 37 at a point near the Kingston city reservoir, a distance of 3¼ miles in the town of Ulster, 2 miles in the town of Kingston and 3¼ miles in the town of Woodstock, as a part of the county highway system. This resolution was also adopted.

The state highway commission approved the resolution calling for the modification of the county highway system in the town of Ulster, Kingston, Hurley and Saugerties. It disapproved the resolution calling for the modification of the system in the town of Marlborough in that it did not comply with section 355 of the highway law. The resolution calling for the improvement of the highway within the village of Marlborough was disapproved as was that calling for the improvement of the highway in the town of Shawangunk from the town line between the towns of Gardiner and Shawangunk south to Wallkill. This was disapproved because the highway described in the resolution was not indicated on the improved county system.

The resolution calling for the improvement of a highway in the town of Gardiner and in the town of Shawangunk were also disapproved.

Chairman James Lounsberry presided at the meeting.

LEGION CHARTER BILL IN CONGRESS

Congressional incorporation of the American Legion is pending. Identical bills of incorporation were introduced into the United States senate by Senator James O. Wolcott, Democrat, of Delaware, and into the house of representatives by Representative Royall C. Johnson, Republican.

The preamble of the bill recites that "under official authority" a caucus of delegates representing the various organizations of the A. E. F. met at Paris on March 17, 1919, and a similar caucus met at St. Louis, May 8-10, 1919, "for the purpose of forming an organization of veterans of the military and naval forces of the United States in the war of 1917-1918," and that these caucuses resulted in the formation of the American Legion, the scope and importance of whose principles and work require its incorporation by congress.

The purposes of the legion as recorded in the bill are recorded as solely patriotic and benevolent. One section gives the preamble to the legion constitution, and another section requires the legion as soon as possible after the first day of January each year to make and transmit to the United States government a report of its proceedings for the preceding calendar year, including a full, complete and itemized report of receipts and expenditures of its national organization of whatever kind, and that this report shall be officially audited and transmitted to Congress.

Under the bill the legion is empowered to establish and maintain state and territorial organizations, adopt a constitution and by-laws; publish a magazine and generally do such acts and things as may be necessary to carry into effect the provisions of this act and promote the purposes and principles of the organization."

All Kingston and Ulster county men who have not yet joined can do so by applying for membership card at surrogate's court.

War Work Leader Decorated

"To Mr. Lee" he said, "I present my congratulations, as, before I left this country, I had personal knowledge of his indefatigable work and interest in behalf of the soldier, and returned only to find the excellent results that this devotion to his country and the soldier had accomplished."

The citation of Mr. Lee for the Distinguished Service Medal states the decoration was awarded to him for "especially meritorious and conspicuous service as President of the War Camp Community Service."

During the war hospitality for the soldiers, sailors and marines was provided by War Camp Community Service in more than 600 cities and towns in this country. More than 1,500,000 men in the service were cared for in dormitories and canteens. Free auto rides, home hospitality, theatres, moving picture shows and many other entertainments were provided. Subsequent to the ceremony Mr. Lee sent the following letter to all the workers of War Camp Community Service:

"To my Fellow Workers: Yesterday, June twenty-fourth, on Boston Common, I received from the hands of General Edwards, Commander of the Northeastern Department, the Distinguished Service Medal for especially meritorious and conspicuous service as President of the War Camp Community Service. I want to congratulate all my fellow workers, paid and unpaid, upon this citation. War Camp Community Service is a spiritual body manifested in the flesh by all its workers and leaders. I think it has deserved this decoration, and I deem it a high honor to have been the instrument or agent to which the medal has been pinned."

AT THE THEATRES.

"Romance and Arabella," another distinctly Constance Talmadge picture will be shown at Keeney's tonight in the role of Mrs. Arabella Cadenhouse, a charming young widow, who has begun to sit up and take notice and to think of the dear departed as her "first." She decides that the man she now will marry must give her romance, mystery, thrills, must sweep her off her feet. Arabella sees absolutely no sense in Aunt Effie's advice that she marry Bill, a clean cut, attractive young man. Why, she has known Bill all her life. There wouldn't be any romance in that. Bill is determined to marry Arabella some day and decides to cure her of her desire for romance and how it is accomplished is told in this amusing comedy. Topics of Day, Pathe Review and Gaumont News are also shown today. Tomorrow and Friday D. W. Griffith's "The Girl Who Stayed at Home" shows actual scenes of Provost Marshal General E. H. Crowder at his own desk in his own office in Washington, a picture never released to any newspaper or agency but posed for the Griffith camera that correct details might be given this great story. Others to be shown are Secretary Baker and General March, both in their own office at work. D W. Griffith takes you further than the chair she knitted in—further than the home fires we've kept burning, he takes you right into the hearts of "The Girls Who Stayed at Home."

June Elvidge in "The Social Pirates" This is a striking, unusual, very interesting and entertaining story told in a gripping manner and it gives Miss Elvidge a particularly good role which she handles to good advantage. At the Auditorium tonight Louis Bennison, the cowboy hero will be the attraction tomorrow in "The Road Called Straight."

LADA TO DANCE AT MAVERICK

"Lada," the dancer who made such a favorable impression at Kingston's Butterfly Ball, will be one of the chief attractions at this year's Maverick Festival, at the Maverick, near Woodstock, Saturday August 9th.

The announcement of the affair consistently unique, says.

"You haven't any store clothes?—So much the better. Make a costume out of any old thing you have on hand. The funnier you look, the prettier your girl will be in contrast. Historical costume?— All right! Anything from the Cave Man down to the 25th century. (Please don't go back to the first date or after the last one.)

You haven't the cash to get tickets for the shows—Get up a show yourself and earn the money on the grounds. The biggest faker will reap the biggest profits. Or, if you can't think up a show, bring something to sell for the camp-fire supper—sandwiches, fruit, hot coffee, iced tea, according to the temperature and your larder."

If August 9th should be rainy, the festival will be held the following Saturday.

Circus Loading Delayed.

Last night, when the circus men were busy loading the parade wagons one of the wagons became unmanageable and the front wheel ran off the plank between two cars. The man who was guiding the wagon lost his hold on the pole, and could not yell in time to stop the horses. An automobile truck was placed on each side of the car and a cable was fastened to the wagon. Then, with a few blocks under the axle of the wagon to swing it, it was hauled back on the flatcar. This work took about an hour and will delay the show's arrival in Oneonta, where it shows today.

Birds With Brains.

Naturalists have arrived at the conclusion that the brain in birds is large in proportion to the body. If it is admitted that intelligence depends upon the weight of brain, then the goldfinch must be placed at the top of the list of birds; the brain weighs one-fourteenth of its whole body.

Bad Results From Taking Substitutes For Nuxated Iron

Startling Case Cited—Physician Warns Public and Says Ordinary Metallic Iron Preparations Cannot Possibly Give The Same STRENGTH, POWER AND ENDURANCE AS Organic Iron—Nuxated Iron.

The tremendous success of Nuxated Iron as a tonic, strength and blood builder (it being estimated that over three million people annually are now using it) has led to the offering of numerous substitutes and imitations. Investigation shows that many of these instead of being organic iron may be nothing more than a metallic iron compound which may in some instances produce more harm than good. Typical among the cases reported is one of a woman who has threatened to sue for damages the druggist who sold her something purporting to be the genuine Nuxated Iron but which, while similar in name, package and appearance was nothing more than a spurious article, imitating the real. The woman claims that instead of obtaining increased strength and improved health as she had with the true Nuxated Iron, she was seriously upset and in fact became ill as a result of using the substitute.

Both instances as these have led physicians mentioned below to emphasize that health officials and doctors everywhere advise them the public against accepting substitutes for Nuxated Iron. Those who feel the need of a strength and blood builder should consult their family doctors and obtain a prescription calling for organic iron—Nuxated Iron—and present this to their druggist so that there may be no room or excuse for substituting the proper article. But if they do not wish to go to the trouble of getting a prescription for Nuxated Iron they should be sure to look on the label and see that the words Nuxated Iron are printed thereon.

There are thousands of people suffering from who do not realize the difference between organic iron and metallic iron and who fail to get the vital strength, strength and endurance which they seek simply because they have taken the wrong form of iron. If you are not strong or well, you owe it to yourself to make the following test. See how long you can work or how far you can walk without becoming tired. Next take two five-grain tablets of Nuxated Iron three times per day after meals for two weeks. Then test your strength and see how much you have gained.

MANUFACTURERS NOTE: The widespread publication of the above information has led druggists in Kingston to announce that the genuine Nuxated Iron is now on sale in this city. The well-known preparation, Nuxated Iron, is said to be meeting with remarkable success in Kingston and vicinity, and druggists are authorized to refund the purchase price to any purchaser who does not find that it will increase their strength and endurance in less than two weeks' time. It is distributed in Kingston by all good druggists.

PARENTS SHOWN NAVY ATTRACTION

Now that war time activities have ceased and it has been necessary to release men who enlisted in the navy for the period of emergency only, an interesting program is being arranged whereby unusual advantages and opportunities for promotion will be given to those who become a part of the peace time navy.

Upon the cessation of hostilities, the department's first concern was to bring about the release of the young men who came in the navy to contribute their help in time of war, and by so doing, sacrificed from one to two years of their educational training, so as to permit them to return to college. I strongly advise every young man who can possibly do so, to go to college and appeal to parents to encourage their sons to complete their education. If unable to do so, however, I urge that parents investigate, in behalf of their sons, the opportunities offered by the navy to every ambitious young man, and suggest that they interview local recruiting officers or communicate with the navy department.

To the average young man, one of the chief appeals of college life, apart from the educational advantage, is the athletic training and resultant fun which forms a part of the life. That is a healthy, young American view-point. The athletic life is also one of the strongest allurements of the navy. Each ship has its athletic activities, and the inter-ship contests are events to which the men look forward with as keen anticipation as do the varsity enthusiasts.

The technical training offered by the navy gives young men an opportuntiy to become proficient in whatever line they choose, and at the same time lead a life consistent with ideals of American manhood.

Secretary of the Navy.

VETCH CROP FOR HOME GARDEN

A few cents worth of vetch seed planted in the garden each year and spaded or hoed under as a green manure crop will keep the soil supplied with humus and, to a large extent, with nitrogen. The vetch should be kept growing at all times in all available spaces.

For example, if early corn or cabbage are not removed in time to allow for a follow-up crop, vetch can be planted between the rows at the time of the last cultivation. It will then be large enough to spade under in the fall or spring. Another good way to use vetch is to sow it in the fall or spring when the garden is being spaded in preparation for tomatoes.

By the time the tomato plants are ready to set, the vetch will be under way. If the vetch is not more than three of four inches high, places can be cleared at proper distances for planting the tomatoes by turning under a spade or two of soil. Then when the vetch left between the tomatoes is six or eight inches high, it can be hoed in. Since it is green and tender, this is no great task and the vetch will soon rot. If vetch is used in this way, the soil should be inoculated with the necessary bacteria. Instructions for doing this simple work can be had upon application to the state college of agriculture at Ithaca, N. Y.

LARKIN'S BIG SHOE SALE

Strikes a New Blow at the High Cost of Living!

$20,000 Worth of High Grade Shoes at Prices from 10 to 40 Per Cent Under the Market

The question for thoughtful people to consider right now is not what do things cost TODAY, but what will they cost in the next few months to come. Every head of a home, every man and woman who has to look the family budget in the eye, should awake to the advantages of buying now for future needs, for we will make prices that will defy the market and may not be dulplicated in months or perhaps, years.

The question naturally arises, if our stock is growing in leaps and bounds, why not hold them for the future, since shoes are so scarce and present retail prices so comparatively low?

The answer is, OUR SHOE STOCK is so large that we could hardly have room to place any more, due to the placing of orders far ahead at old prices, and new shoes are arriving daily from sources few stores can reach.

DUAL OPENING AT VAN WAGENEN'S

On Saturday evening of this week the L. B. Van Wagenen Store will celebrate a most unusual opening event. This popular business house will not only be open to welcome its patrons by way of the big front doors and the accommodating back door which makes it possible to enter this place of business from Crown street, and the Kingston Hotel grounds, which has proven to be such an accommodation to many people, but the new entrance on John street, opposite the parking grounds on that street is to be formally opened. Through this pleasant and cool entrance-way, with its green and white decorations and electric lights for evening, and its swinging English sign, people who park their cars in the new parking grounds can go right across the street and find themselves in the Van Wagenen store in about two minutes, and from the store they will reach Wall street without so much as going around the corner. Everthing has been done by this up-to-date concern to make this new entrance attractive as well as convenient, and it is rumored that the next two moves will be a sub-marine onslaught, so to speak, not to mention the arranging for the alighting of areoplanes on the roof. Has a futurist sound, sure, but just watch out and see what happens?

And, by the way, having thus opened up their store on Saturday evening, there'll be special things doing in the store in the way of a hot-weather sale up to ten o'clock.

Divide German Colony.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

Paris, July 30.—Viscount Milner, British colonial secretary, and Henri Simon, French minister of colonies, have signed an agreement at London ceding to France the whole of the German Camerons, in South Africa, except a strip adjoining Nigeria, which will go to England, the Petit Parisian stated today. Most of Togoland, including Lome, will go to France, it was said.

Hammerstein Rested Last Night.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

New York, July 30.—The condition of Oscar Hammerstein, opera impressario, continued unchanged today. He passed a restful night.

TWO DROWN AS U. S. SUB SINKS

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

New London, Conn., July 30.—The United States submarine G-2 which had been stationed at the submarine base here, sank suddenly to the bottom of the sound, three miles off Pleasure Beach about ten o'clock this morning and two members of a crew of twelve were drowned. The other members of the crew escaped and were picked up by the revenue cutter Acushnet. The G-2 went down in deep water and it will be a difficult task to either raise her or find the bodies of two drowned men. The submarines M-3 and R-5 which were at the base when the accident happened were rushed to the G-2's assistance and are making efforts to find the lost undersea craft.

The G-2 went out for experimental work this morning, and without warning her nose dipped and she plunged to the bottom. The names of the two men drowned could not be learned up to an early hour this afternoon.

THE KITCHEN GARDEN.

People who live in the country or small towns where they may have plenty of space for gardens will be able to grow all the fresh vegetables needed for summer and enough to can for the winter. A good vegetable garden is a good solution for the high cost of living. Even those who are obliged to live in apartments or flats may, with a little work, raise a variety of good things. A barrel has proven a good garden for strawberries, and it has also grown cucumbers and radishes. Cucumbers may be grown on a rack, and if well watered will grow quite a crop. Fill the barrel with well-rotted horse manure, and be sure to water the ground, not the plant.

Large flower urns are another fine place to start an early crop of vegetables. The crop may all be gone by the time it is warm enough to set out the geraniums and foliage plants.

Parsley and chives may be grown in the kitchen window all the year round, making plenty of the flavor for all the dishes one wishes to garnish and season.

For the leaf lettuce a bed three feet square will supply the average family with all the lettuce needed. As it is used, sow more seed and have fresh, crisp lettuce all the season. For the head lettuce more room will be needed, but it pays for all the time and trouble of transplanting.

Those who are not crowded for room should have an asparagus bed, for when it begins to produce it is a joy forever. A strawberry bed is another desirable addition to the garden. With a little care and transplanting one may keep a bed for years.

Early Spring Dish.—Cook together young onions, carrots and peas in just as little water as possible, with a little salt pork cut in small cubes and browned. When the vegetables are tender do not drain, but add milk, season and serve as a chowder or as a side dish.

AMERICA'S IMMORTALS

WILBUR E. COLVER,
Sergeant, Company A, 1st U. S. Engineers.

For conspicuous gallantry in action near Verdun, France, October 8, 1918, Sergt. Colver was awarded the Distinguished Service Cross. Volunteering, with two other soldiers, to locate machine gun nests, Sergt. Colver advanced on the hostile positions to a point where he was half surrounded by the nests, which were in ambush. He killed the gunner of one gun with a captured German grenade and then turned this gun on the other nests, silencing all of them before he returned to his platoon. He was later killed in action. Sergt. Colver lived with his father, William H. Colver, at 202 Helen avenue, South Ozone, L. I., N. Y.

Instructing Grandpa.

"I was talking to my little granddaughter over the telephone the other day," said an old man recently to a few of his friends at a hotel, "and when I ended I said, 'Here, Dorothy, is a kiss for you.' She replied, 'Oh, pshaw, grandpa! Don't you know that a kiss over the telephone is like a straw hat?' I said, 'Why, no, sweetheart, how's that?' 'It's not felt, grandpa,' she said."—Flighty (London).

CHARGE DECKER WITH MURDER

No Water in Lungs of Girl Whom Sweetheart Says Drowned When Their Canoe Went Over Dam.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

Paterson, N. J., July 30.—After a preliminary examination of the body of Miss Mabel Harris, 20, recovered from the Pompton river today, County Prosecutor Michael Dunn announced that he will file a charge of first degree murder against Lester Decker, the girl's fiance, who was placed under arrest after her mysterious disappearance Sunday night.

The body was found by Edward Toure, one of a party that had been searching the river below a dam on Pompton Lake for 24 hours. The girl's clothing was torn and her undergarments twisted about her head. She was without shoes and one stocking was pulled down about her ankle.

Dr. Armstrong, county physician, said that there was no water in the girl's lungs, indicating that she met death before she fell or was thrown into the water. He ordered the body taken to a morgue for a more complete examination.

No trace was found of $50 in cash and a gold watch which Miss Harris had with her when she was last seen by relatives. The girl wore three rings, one of them a wedding ring, about which there is some mystery. This ring, according to members of her family, was worn for the first time by Miss Harris last Saturday, the day originally set for her wedding to Decker.

The police today were investigating several reports that Miss Harris and Decker were heard quarreling near the dam, below which the body was found. A chauffeur employed by Dr. W. C. Adams of Pompton, told the police he saw a couple in a quarrel shortly before 11 o'clock Sunday night near an unoccupied cottage, half a mile above the dam.

Chief of Scouts S. Dyet, of St. Nicholas Church, Passaic, told the police that several of the forty boy scouts from that church, who were camping near the unoccupied house, heard sounds of a quarrel between a man and a woman at about 11 o'clock Sunday night. The boys investigated but the couple had departed.

A shoe was found a few yards from the house and it will be shown to Mrs. Harris, when she is sufficiently recovered from the shock, to see if she can identify it as her daughter's.

CHICAGO RACE TROUBLE QUIETER

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

Chicago, July 30.—The shadow of possible martial law, which has hung over Chicago since Sunday when rioting began between white and negro residents of the south side, was believed this afternoon to have lessened materially, perhaps to have passed entirely away.

After receiving reports on the situation from Adjutant General Dickson and from the Chicago police, Governor Lowden declared that troops would not be called into service so long as conditions continue to improve as they have in the past 24 hours. Reports to the police from all sections of the riot swept district indicate that the police are gaining control.

Activities of the rioters today were confined mostly to sporadic snipings from barricades or other places upon stragglers in the riot district.

The official list of dead now stands at 27, which includes 14 negroes and 13 whites.

For the present troops that are under arms in several armories will be held on duty, ready for services if need be.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

New York, July 30.—United States Steel Common reigstered only a moderate advance at the stock market opening today, following issuance of the quarterly report of the steel corporation yesterday, and lost nearly all its gain within fifteen minutes. The stock opened at 112⅞ to 113 and advanced to 113⅜, compared with 113⅛ at yesterday's close, but at the end of the first quarter hour was down to 112¼. Baldwin Locomotive moved up a point to 117½ but soon reacted to 116, and Bethlehem Steel B, which rose 1⅝ to 101, yielded to 99½. The Petroleum stocks showed the same degree of heaviness as the steel shares, Pan-American advancing to 115¾ and then dropping to 114. The Whelan stocks were an exception to the general recessions, both of the active issues making new high records, United Cigar Stores advanced 2 points to 215 and retail stores ½ to 107¾.

In the late forenoon many issues yielded 1 to 3 points. Steel Common dropped from 113⅛ to 110⅞; Baldwin Locomotive fell 3½ points to 114; United Cigar Stores from 215 to 212; and Maxwell Motors nearly four points to 53¾.

The market closed irregular; government bonds unchanged; railway and other bonds steady.

Price of Happiness.

No man can be happy when he despises his own acts, when he has any consciousness of wrong, whether of motive or act. No man can be happy when he harbors thoughts of revenge, jealousy, envy or hatred. He must have a clean heart and a clean conscience, or no amount of money or excitement can make him happy.—Exchange.

Memory Must Be Cultivated.

In any system of mental development, the memory must be cultivated at the outset, and that cultivation must continue unceasingly. It is fortunate indeed that every average person has a mind capable of excellent memory. It is only necessary that the native powers should be properly employed.

TELL OF WASTED ARMY MATERIAL

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

New York, July 30.—Direct evidence that enormous quantities of airplanes, plane parts, and army equipment of all kinds was "wantonly" destroyed in France after the armistice, was given the congressional sub-committee sitting here today by aviators and mechanicians who participated in the destruction. The committee, of which Representative Royal C. Johnson of South Dakota, is chairman, is investigating prison brutalities and misuse of army funds and property.

The witnesses told the committee of a "million dollar fire" at the first air depot at Columbey-les-Belles, France, where army authorities ordered the burning of a tremendous amount of material. Many planes, only slightly used, and some still bearing their original shipping tags, were thrown into the huge conflagration, according to the witnesses.

Calendar Facts.

The month of January always begins on the same day of the week as October and the same is true of April and July, September and December. February, March and November also begin on the same day of the week. This, however, is only true in normal years of 365 days. A century can never begin on Wednesday, Friday or Saturday. Furthermore, the ordinary year ends on the same day of the week as that on which it begins.

Traveling Fingers.

Typists' fingers are the most amazing travelers in creation, and are capable of going tremendous distances without the fatigue that would come to the feet and legs in performing a similar journey. In ordinary typewriting the hand may travel, according to an expert, 10,000 miles a year and not indicate any impairment in efficiency. This refers, of course to the average typist in an office.

"Age Cannot Wither."

A tradesman was brought before the magistrate charged with having sold unwholesome articles for consumption as food. The charge was fully proved. "I wish to point out to the court," said counsel for the defense in a dignified tone, "that the house of business that I have the honor to defend was founded in 1802." "Has it renewed its stock since that date?" asked the magistrate.

GREAT DRIVERS AT POUGHKEEPSIE

All signs point to the greatest race meeting in the history of Poughkeepsie, August 18th to 23rd, when drivers such as Cox, Murphy, Fleming, Geers, Valentine, McMahon, etc., driving horses such as Lou Princeton, Ante Guy, Binland, Easton, Royal Mack, Prince Loree, McGregor the Great and others meet over that famed track.

The fastest horses from Cleveland, Kalamazoo, Toledo, Columbus and other cities are all entered at Poughkeepsie. Two silver loving cups and $28,240 in prizes are the trophies for which these veterans of the track will contest.

Walter Cox, who had rather a poor season last year on the Grand Circuit is this year contesting with Tommy Murphy. Poughkeepsie's crack reinsman, for the honor of leading the party when October frosts come.

"McGregor the Great" who has thus far been the leading money winner in the trotting stakes, is expected to break all records at Poughkeepsie. Then there is Prince Loree, Binland and Ante Guy, the appearance of any one of which would be sure to attract the multitudes, and who through the influence of Tommy Murphy meet over the Poughkeepsie turf. A 2:00 flat race is looked for.

Murphy has telegraphed the Poughkeepsie Grand Circuit committee that his foot is in good shape and that is suffering no inconvenience as the result of his fall. Ed Geers, grand old man of the track, Sporting Wheel's favorite son, promises to contest honors with Murphy on his home track.

The judges for the Poughkeepsie meeting have all been selected. They include some of the most famous horsemen now living, with Presiding Judge Isaac J. Keating in charge, and Associate Judges Pierre Lailord of Tuxedo and Senator Charles Barnum of Lime Rock, Conn. The presiding timer is Wendell P. Booth of Poughkeepsie, and clerk of the course is Percy L. Smith of Boston.

WATERBURY OBJECTS

To Having To Defend Charges Against His Aliases.

Jules Waterbury, otherwise "Doc" Waterbury, international "con" man and the bearer of numerous aliases, was before Judge McIntyre in general sessions, New York city, for pleading Monday in connection with an assault charge as a second offender. He pleaded not guilty and protested against the aliases, also being charged with the crime.

"I see by the indictment," he said addressing the court, "that I have aliases galore. I want to move, your honor, to have all these aliases stricken from the indictment. I have trouble enough to protect my own name without being called upon to defend all these various aliases. If the court pleases, I was never known as Henry Weir or John Briggs."

The motion was denied and the confidence man, in default of $25,000 bail, was remanded to the Tombs for trial.

CONTROLLING ONION SMUT

The onion growers of New York state have had tangible evidence of the efficacy of formaldehyde solution for the control of onion smut. Word comes to the state college of agriculture from H. W. Dye, a prominent onion man of Wayne county, who has been active in the tests, that since 1917, when the first tests of the treatment were made near Williamson, the acreage of onions treated on the farms surrounding that place has increased fully 25 per cent.

The success of the tests here has stimulated this method of treatment for control of smut in other parts of the county, and also in other sections of the state where onions are raised.

In the 1917 tests, treated rows of onions yielded 164 more bushels to the acre than did untreated rows. Last summer, 1918, the results were even more gratifying, for the treated rows yielded 320 more bushels to the acre than did the untreated rows, an increase of 106.4 per cent.

When he left the first night he left all his tools, including several ladders, behind him, a fact that excited Mildred very much. # HERE AND THERE ABOUT THE TOWN

The Common Council Should Equip Doors of Council Chamber With Peep Holes For Benefit of Local Democrats Desirous of Picking Slate.

"Gosh, that must have been some session of the local Democrats the other evening at the city hall," observed the customer, dropping the newspaper he had been glancing through.

"It sure must have been," agreed the busy barber, "but to my mind the common council should be more considerate."

"What do you mean, considerate?" asked the customer.

"They should equip the doors of the council chamber with peep holes for the benefit of the local Democratic leaders so that next time they will be able to meet in more comfort than the other night."

"Peep holes," interrupted the customer.

"Sure," replied the barber, "for they would only admit those to the meeting who were known to be Democrats, and consequently every time one knocked at the closed door it had to be opened. All that takes time. Now if they had peep holes they would not have to bother opening the door but by glancing through the peep hole they would know whether it was a Democrat who applied for admission or not."

"I get you now," said the customer, "and come to think it over it would not be a bad idea at that."

"What I am wondering though," continued the barber, "is what the majority of the Democrats in the city think of having a few of the leaders get together and tell them who they must vote for."

"I thought of that too," said the customer.

"To tell the truth," said the barber, "considering the way they went about it it is somewhat surprising they were able to get as strong a ticket as they did."

"The one advantage I can see in their method," said the customer, thoughtfully, "is the fact that the leaders are able to secure candidates they think they can control."

"The only trouble with that though," said the barber, "is the fact that the voters know it too, and that has its disadvantages."

"Especially when the vote is counted," interrupted the customer.

Taking a Plebiscite.

Plebiscite is a political term borrowed from the French, meaning a vote of all the electors in a country taken on some specific question. It is from the Latin plebiscitum, a decree of the plebs, or law made by the common people, and is somewhat similar to the referendum. A notable example of the use of the plebiscite in French history was in 1852, when the memorable coup d'etat of 1851 was confirmed and the title of emperor was given to Napoleon III.
